

Agon Pacific

TECHNICAL CONSULTING AND ENGINEERING SERVICE

Agon Pacific team of experts are working closely with our clients to provide the full range of technical consulting and engineering services. We have extensive power industry experience and are always successful in identifying potential areas of that can concern surface later to jeopardize budgets or schedules. We have worked on behalf of power plant owners and contractors.

Selecting us to be your partner, together we can work to meet you project deliveries and increase profitability – correctly specifying new equipment, improved plant operations and performance, boiler efficiency, availability, reducing down time risk and maximizing equipment life.

Our capabilities include EPC proposal reviews, bid phase boiler process review, review of detail design engineering, provision of inspection test plans, performance tests, boiler baseline measurements, site advisory services for fabrication, erection, commissioning and operation.